DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-45 are allowed.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The prior art of record does not render obvious to one ordinarily skilled in the art at the time of applicants' invention nor anticipate the combination of claimed elements including "wherein if the rights are not full access rights and are not zero access rights, selectively modifying the content based on the rights includes degrading a level of quality of an output of the content such that the degraded level of quality of the output is less than a level of quality of output corresponding to full access rights but higher than a level of quality of output corresponding to zero access rights" as recited in independent claims 1 and similarly in independent claims 12, 14, 19, 21, 22, 32, 34, and 44.

As per claim 8, the prior art of record does not teach the combination of elements read in light of the specification including "wherein the modified content is a degraded quality version of the content that would be provided to the user if the user had a non-expired subscription" and similarly recited in independent claims 20, 28, and 40.

As per claim 10, the prior art of record does not teach the combination of elements read in light of the specification including "responsive to a determination that the subscription has expired, selectively modifying the content to form a modified content; and returning the modified content to the user, wherein the content is a music file” and similarly recited in independent claims 30 and 42.

The remaining claims 2-7, 9, 11, 13, 15-18, 23-27, 29, 31, 33, 35-39, 41, 43, and 45 comprise dependent claims, thus these claims are patently distinct over the art of record for at least the above reasons.

3. The examiner agrees with the applicants’ remarks filed on April 1, 2004, paper no. 4, page 14, lines 21-35, page 17, lines 1-25, page 19, lines 30-33, page 20, lines 1-30; page 21, lines 1-11 and 21-28; page 22, lines 1-7 and 29-31; and page 23, lines 1-16.
